

CHARGE OF MURDER.

Startling Developments in the Homestead Labor Trouble.

LABOR LEADERS ARRESTED.

The Burgess of the Town Locked Up in a Cell—The Latest Move on the Part of the Carnegie Company May Lead to Serious Results—The Little Town in a Feverish State of Excitement.

PITTSBURG, July 19.—John McLuckie, burgess, or chief municipal officer of Homestead, slept last night on a cot in one of the cells of the county jail. Telegrams are being sent to a dozen points between here and New York seeking the aid of the police authorities for the arrest of Hugh O'Donnell, the leader of the strikers, and warrants are in the hands of the officers of the law for seven other prominent participants in the troubles at Homestead, and who are but the vanguard of a small army of strikers that it is proposed to bring before the bar of the law.

The intention of the Carnegie company to institute proceedings against the Homestead leaders in the event of the county authorities failing to take cognizance of the recent riot, was carried into effect much quicker than had been anticipated or than the authorities at the executive offices who feared the effect of a premature publication of their intentions were willing to intimate. The preliminary stages of the proceedings were conducted with considerable secrecy.

It was shortly before noon when Secretary Lovejoy, of the Carnegie company, sauntered leisurely into the office of Alderman J. V. McMasters, at Diamond and Grant streets. He was unaccompanied, and by a peculiar coincidence nobody but the alderman was in the office at the time, the constable attached to the place being behind the closed doors of the ante-room. Secretary Lovejoy stated that he desired to lay information against a number of men charging the crime of murder, and the alderman proceeded to draw up the papers.

The informations set forth that in Mifflin township, in the county of Allegheny and the state of Pennsylvania, on the 6th of July, the defendants did of their own malice aforethought feloniously and riotously with force of arms and deadly weapons kill and murder T. J. Connors, a Pinkerton watchman, and Silas Wayne, a worker at the mills, and that this information was made upon information received and believed to be true by the deponent, who therefore prayed that warrants might issue and that the men to be named might be arrested and held on the charge of murder.

When this document had been drawn up the alderman suggested that it would be better to have two informations, one relating to the killing of Connors and the other to that of Wayne, and a second paper was accordingly made out. Secretary Lovejoy then named as the men accused: Hugh O'Donnell, John McLuckie, Sylvester Critchlow, Anthony Flaherty, Samuel Burke, James Flannigan and Hugh Ross. In one information the name of O'Donnell stood first, while in the other it stood second.

When the papers had been completed Secretary Lovejoy listened to the reading of the oath, kissed the Bible, affixed his signature to the information, buttoned his sack coat, shook hands with the justice and sauntered out of the office as leisurely and, to all outward appearance, as free from care and anxiety as he had entered a half hour before.

No time was lost by Magistrate McMasters in making out the warrants, and shortly before 2 o'clock they were entrusted to Constables Joseph Weber, W. J. Morris and Mike J. Price, who at once left for Homestead.

On their arrival they made known their business to General Snowden, who referred them to Colonel Green, in command of the provost guard. The latter detailed two companies of soldiers to accompany the constables, and the latter visited the houses of all the men wanted but without result. Not one of them was at home, and most of the residences were locked in darkness. When the officers returned to this city toward dusk they were surprised to find that Burgess McLuckie had gotten out of town while they were searching for him and had already surrendered himself to the alderman. He was in the office in company with Attorney Brengan, of the Amalgamated association, and several friends. The warrant was formally served upon him, and to the magistrate he said that he had already sent word to the other men who were wanted to come into town and surrender.

To those around him McLuckie said that he and O'Donnell were not leaders, but among the smallest of the strikers, and as for himself he did not know if he was any longer a member of the association. He went on to say: "I might as well come out with it and say that informations will be laid against Frick, Carnegie and Potter. Whether we will bring any one else into it I can not say at present. I tell you we will make this man Frick come down on his knees so hard that the sound will be heard in the furthest corner of civilization." "Yes," put in one of those present, "and once the warrants are issued we will have Carnegie extradited in short order."

Alderman McMasters waited in his office until 8 o'clock, and then, none of the other accused men putting in an appearance, he committed the burgess to the county jail without bail pending a preliminary examination on Friday. In custody of Constable Price and accompanied by Jerre Dougherty, an official of the Amalgamated association, and Thomas Coogan and George Clark, mill men, he walked to the county jail. On the outside he shook hands with his friends, and then passed through the iron gate. After being searched by Chief Warden McAleese, who found in his pockets nothing more dangerous than the key to the Homestead lockup, he was taken to a cell on the first tier and locked up. Half an hour later he was fast asleep.

Application for McLuckie's release on bail will be made today.

HOMESTEAD EXCITED.

Frick's Latest Move May Lead to Serious Results.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., July 19.—Never since the night that Governor Pattison ordered the state troops to Homestead was this little borough thrown into such a state of feverish excitement as it was yesterday evening when the news went abroad that warrants, charging the leaders of the strike with wilful murder had been issued in Pittsburgh, and that six of seven men charged had given themselves up to the authorities.

About 3 o'clock in the afternoon two men walked into the office of Squire Kuhn, the local magistrate, and made some inquiries concerning the places of residence of Burgess McLuckie and other strike leaders. They refused to tell why they desired the information. The inquiries were continued at other places, and suspicion as to the real character of the business of the two men became aroused when they were recognized as Constables Price and Irwin.

The suspicion was not verified, however, until about 4 o'clock when T. H. Williamson, a member of the Homestead borough council and also a member of the local advisory committee on the strike, arrived in Homestead from Pittsburgh with the information that the warrants had been issued.

That news soon became noised about. While a suspicion that the arrests were anticipated had been prevalent for two days, it was not supposed that the charge against the strike leaders would be so serious a one as murder, and the workmen were thrown into a state bordering on consternation by the direful tidings.

Coming, as the news did, directly after the victory of the Amalgamated association in the refusal of the men in the mechanical department of the Carnegie works to accept the invitation of the firm to return to their old duties, it turned jubilation to despondency, and brought tears to the eyes of many a man, whose heart was in the cause. A few took the news quietly, the greater number indulged in bitter words, but took care that outsiders were not near when they spoke them. Women gave way to tears and declared that all was lost, while little children, seeing their elders weep, clung tremblingly to the dresses of their mothers, and did likewise.

It is certain that the leaders of the strike had an inkling of what the Carnegie company intended, but nevertheless the news that the warrants had been issued came like the shock of a thunderbolt to them. They had expected that conspiracy would be the most serious charge preferred, if any, and "murder" had an ominous sound that foreboded grievous trouble.

Hasty summons brought the leaders together at the headquarters of the advisory committee, a stone's throw from the edge of Camp Black. On the face of every man was a serious, troubled look, and haste was made to lock the door of the consultation room that the new aspect that the situation had taken might be discussed without fear of betrayal.

The members of the town council also met. Their purpose was to consider the arrest of John McLuckie, the burgess of the town.

In the absence of the burgess, Chief Byrne, of the fire department, became acting burgess. When told of the arrests, he at first refused to believe that they had been made, but when convinced that there was no mistake about it, he expressed himself in emphatic terms. He declared the action of the Carnegie company an outrage and a most dangerous step to take in the present excited condition of the community. He said the whole blame of the matter rested upon Mr. Frick, and that in his opinion it would react and Mr. Frick would lose more than he would gain by the extreme step he had taken.

The two men who have done more than any dozen others to restrain the strikers from unlawful acts during the many exciting days since the battle with the Pinkertons are Hugh O'Donnell and Burgess McLuckie. The removal of these two men from the town at this critical time leaves the more hot-headed of the strikers with few able to keep them in check in case an emergency arises, tending to lead them to again resort to mob violence.

The men of all grades of intelligence have great respect for these two men. They fairly worship O'Donnell. He is considered a young Napoleon among them. He is a born leader, quick to think and act; he is a man of remarkable intelligence, and has practically guided the workmen in their struggle. Burgess McLuckie is also a counsellor of peaceful methods, and has done much to restrain the men from violence. He was burgess at the time of the strike of 1889, and was elected by the workmen again this year, as they saw another difficulty with the Carnegie company was brewing.

Suspicion that arrests were to be made became aroused at the singular action of Sheriff McCleary and a deputy in making a tour of the town under escort of a battalion of troops. About 1 o'clock in the afternoon, Major J. P. Brooks, of the Thirteenth regiment, received orders from Colonel Green, the provost marshal, to take companies "D" and "E" of his regiment and go with the sheriff. The soldiers followed the sheriff and a deputy at a distance sufficient not to attract attention, but nevertheless suspicion was excited, and the leaders of the strike were informed of the peculiar action of Mr. McCleary. He stopped at a number of places and made inquiries concerning the whereabouts of some of the leaders, but did not succeed in finding any of them.

It is not believed that the sheriff had the warrants in his possession at the time, because his authority does not extend to serving them. The general explanation offered is that he was bent on gathering preliminary information to give the constables in order to facilitate their quest. When a United Press reporter asked the sheriff, shortly after noon, whether he had any warrants for the leaders in his possession, Mr. McCleary replied that he did not know anything about such documents.

SENSATIONAL TRIAL BEGUN.

How a Memphis Girl Will Get Clear of a Murder Charge.

MEMPHIS, July 19.—The trial of Alice Mitchell on her plea of present insanity, was begun in the criminal court Monday morning in the presence of a large number of people. This trial grows out of the murder of Miss Freda Ward by Miss Mitchell, who cut her throat from ear to ear with a razor and who wounded her sister, Jo Ward. A venire composed of prominent business men of the city has been summoned, from which a jury selection is to be made.

The work of selecting the jury occupied two hours and a half. It is composed of the leading business men of Memphis. The only question asked them was whether or not they had an opinion as to Miss Mitchell's present insanity.

The girl's father was the first witness and he told of his wife's temporary insanity when her first child was born and also of her mental condition when Alice was born.

While detailing the story, his daughter smiled as if she thought the matter a huge joke.

ALMOST LYNCHED.

A Negro Murderer Has a Narrow Escape for His Life.

COLUMBIA, S. C., July 19.—Andrew Jeffers, a negro ex-convict, yesterday morning killed a white man named William Adams. Adams was talking to a woman named Lizzie Waddell, of whom Jeffers appeared to be jealous.

After the killing Jeffers fled, but was pursued and captured by an enraged mob, who after nearly killing him with kicks and clubs, were about to complete their work by lynching their victim, when interrupted by several leading citizens, who finally prevailed upon the mob to let the law take its course, and the black brute was led away to jail, followed by a howling mob of angry people, who constantly pounded him with rocks and other missiles at hand.

Fatal Accident at a Crossing.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., July 19.—The Ohio and Mississippi passenger, north-bound train, ran into a buggy occupied by Mrs. Emma and Miss Blanche Phipps and Frank M. Coombs. The buggy was smashed, the horse killed and all three occupants were fatally injured. One of the women is the divorced and the other the present wife of Dan M. Coombs.

A Doubtful Story.

MILWAUKEE, July 19.—George E. Stilling, a tailor, 68 Loan and Trust building, reported to the police yesterday morning that he had been gagged by two men and robbed of $7,000 he had in his safe and $300 he had in his pocket. The police doubt his story.

Thrown from a Buggy.

CLARKSVILLE, Tenn., July 19.—Mrs. Bell, wife of Professor Walter Bell, of Cloverdale academy, was riding out Saturday, near home, when the horse became frightened and ran away, throwing her out of the buggy, probably producing fatal injuries.

Excursion Steamer Grounded.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—The excursion steamer Lady of the Lake, with 200 passengers, is reported grounded at Lower Cedar bar, about sixty miles down the Potomac. She was due here this morning.

Gas Explosion.

SHENANDOAH, Pa., July 19.—A terrific explosion of gas occurred at the Egan Gowen colliery yesterday afternoon, killing Caspar Mitchell and damaging the workings considerably.

Base Ball.

At Brooklyn—Brooklyn 4, St. Louis 4; game called at the end of the fourteenth inning on account of darkness.
At New York—New York 2, Cincinnati 5.
At Boston—Boston 7, Pittsburg 9.
At Washington—Washington 11, Louisville 7.
At Philadelphia—Philadelphia 13, Chicago 3.
At Baltimore—Baltimore 1, Cleveland 7.

NEW YORK, July 19.—Lucy Fayerweather, widow of the millionaire leather merchant, Daniel B. Fayerweather, died on Saturday night in Rutland, Vt. Her death recalls a will contest which became a celebrated case. Mrs. Fayerweather's death will result in dividing the half million dollars, from which her income of $25,000 a year was derived, among six final residuary legatees named in the deed of gift as follows: Yale, Harvard, Princeton and Columbia colleges, and the Presbyterian hospital, $50,000 each; the woman's hospital, $250,000. This raises the benefaction to the woman's hospital to $460,000, while Yale gets $500,000 altogether, Harvard $150,000, Princeton $150,000, and the Presbyterian hospital $100,000.

BUSY DAY IN CONGRESS.

An Unusually Large Number of Measures Disposed of by the House.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—The house was in good humor all day, and considering the number of roll calls, which consumed much time, an unusually large number of measures were disposed of. Among them were: To refund to the city of Raleigh, N. C., $734 for paving the street in front of the postoffice building; to affix the seal of the United States to a document entitled "The United States government at the beginning of the 400th anniversary of America;" to create the California debris commission and to regulate hydraulic mining in that state; to fund the debt of counties in the territory of Oklahoma; to refer to the court of private land claims, the well known case of William McGarahan involving the title to the Rancho Panoche Grande tract of land in California; authorizing the secretary of the treasury to obtain plans and specifications for public buildings to be erected under the supervision of the treasury department, and providing for local supervision of their construction; to provide for the improvement of the outer bar of the harbor of Brunswick, Ga.; to provide for an investigation of the slums of cities by the commissioner of labor. An evening session was held for three hours, during which the world's fair appropriation was debated. The senate having completed the deficiency bill—the last of the appropriation measures—and having sent it over to the house for a conference, took up the anti-option bill, that is, it resolved to do so but did not do it, for after two hours spent in wrangling and filibustering in a manner very common in the house of representatives but most unusual in the senate, it adjourned without even permitting the bill to be read. That measure will come up again, however, as unfinished business at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

JUST IN TIME.

Close Call of an Indiana Couple from Lynching.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., July 19.—Several days ago the nine-year-old son of Farmer Henry Dodds, who lives on Potato creek, mysteriously disappeared. Dodds is not a popular man, and soon it became whispered that he murdered the boy and disposed of his body.

To make sure a committee of citizens consulted a fortune-teller named Mrs. Crow, who pretended to go into a trance. She told the men that she saw the boy's head crushed in and the body secreted under a brush pile. Every brush pile and haystack for miles around was searched, but no body was found. Meanwhile warrants were sworn out for Dodds and his wife and nephew.

An officer went to serve the papers and found a mob congregated at Dodds' house. The mob had ropes, and was ready to proceed with a lynching when another farmer named Alfred Harmon rode up and stated that the missing boy was at his house. Dodds will make it warm for the would-be lynchers.

Boy Fatally Injured.

BRAZIL, Ind., July 19.—Willie, the nine-year-old son of Charles Dodwell, a prominent contractor, met with an accident at 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon at his home that will result fatally. He was playing on the fence with a long bladed knife in his hand, when he accidentally lost his balance and fell off. In endeavoring to save himself he threw the hand in which the knife was clasped under him. The full weight of his body landed upon the upturned blade, and it entered his body to the hilt. The wound caused internal hemorrhage, and the boy is dying.

Boiler Explosion.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., July 19.—Yesterday morning, soon after the beginning of work in the extensive Walker brick and tile works, at Walkers, a western suburb of this city, one of the boilers exploded, wrecking the building and instantly killing the engineer, James Monypenny, and seriously scalding a half dozen or more of the employees. The employees are about 300 and the small loss of life is remarkable.

Overdose of Morphine.

CHICAGO, July 19.—A. H. Austin, New York drummer, was found in his room at the Palmer House suffering from an overdose of morphine, and the hotel physician is of the opinion that he can not recover. Whether or not the morphine was taken with suicidal intent has not yet been determined. A search of Austin's effects showed him to be a representative of Longschur & Osten, manufacturer of shirt waists.

Requisition Honored.

COLUMBUS, O., July 19.—Governor McKinley yesterday honored the requisition for W. R. Frye, under arrest at Chillicothe and wanted at Navasota, Grimes county, Tex., for forgery. He secured several thousand dollars by forging checks on friends and skipped out with a woman. He worked for a Columbus firm until discharged for stealing. Frye claims he is not the Texas forger.

Fatal Boiler Explosion.

RICHMOND, Ind., July 19.—Yesterday the boiler in the Haynes, Spencer & Company's furniture factory exploded with terrific force. Taylor Hall was killed. The injured are: John Elator, Fred Hyers, will die; Joe Hyers, William Murray, Joe Russell, John Schepman, likely to die, and Harry Sparks.

Saloons Burned.

CLEVELAND, July 19.—A special to The Press from Alliance, O., says: Four saloons and a barber shop were burned in this prohibition town at noon yesterday. Loss, $6,000.

Tool Works Burned.

ASHLAND, O., July 19.—The large foundry of T. E. Myers & Brothers, pump and hay tool works, was destroyed by fire. Loss $4,000, with $2,000 insurance.

COLLISION OF TRAINS

Serious Accident on a Canadian Railroad.

DEATH AND DESTRUCTION.

Three People Killed Outright and Quite a Number Injured—Several People Missing and One Believed to Be Under a Wrecked Car Now in the River.

MERRITTON, Ont., July 19.—One of the worst railway accidents that ever happened in this vicinity occurred at 1:45 o'clock yesterday morning. The mail train on the Welland division of the Grand Trunk railway from Port Dalhousie, bound south, and the accommodation train from Niagara Falls, bound north, to connect with the steamer Empress of India, met in collision at a particularly bad point. A short wooden bridge crosses the water power raceway and the engine of the boat train had just crossed it when the trains met, and the two first coaches on the boat train were thrown from the track over the bank, plunging into the race stream which flows rapidly past. The engine was demolished and thrown over the opposite bank.

Three people were killed and quite a number injured. The killed are:

St. Chapman, engineer of the mail train, of Port Colborne.

David Hunt, fireman of the boat train, of Niagara Falls.

H. Vanslyke, of Buffalo, a passenger.

The injured are: Conductor Boyle, severely cut about head, leg and arm; Brakeman Peter Welsh, injured internally, badly; Baggageman William Spratt, leg badly lacerated; Postal Clerk E. O. Boyle, slightly injured in head; Express Messenger Philip Grobb, badly injured; Engineer Heslop and Fireman Powley, both slightly injured; Brakeman Johnson, injured in the head. Several others are slightly injured, and there are several missing.

It is difficult to arrive at the cause of the collision, but this much is known that the trains usually cross at Port Dalhousie, and the train for the steamer being late at Merritton, endeavored to make St. Catharines before meeting the mail train, with the above result. Owing to the position of the wreck it is impossible to tell whether all the dead have been found. The smoker of the boat train pitched headlong into the raceway and it is under this car that it is supposed there are yet some dead bodies. Both trains are a total wreck and the small loss of life is regarded as almost a miracle.

MISSISSIPPI RIVER IMPROVEMENTS.

Work Done the Past Year and Laid Out for the Present One.

WASHINGTON, July 19.—The Mississippi river commission has submitted its report to the secretary of war, giving a detailed statement of the work accomplished in the improvement of the river during the past year and the plan of work laid out for the present year. The present high water has caused two new breaks in the river near Memphis which will be repaired during the coming season. Caving continues slowly along the bluff further down stream. It seems probable that further extension of the revetment at Greenville may be necessary in the future and work at Lake Providence beach is to be extended during the coming season.

Near Vicksburg the bank continues to cave slowly and the revetment will have to be extended in the future. The sand dikes at New Orleans are all in good condition and appear to be accomplishing the object for which they were designed. The construction of additional spurs is contemplated. It seems that the maximum strain has been placed upon the levees that they will have to bear this year, and that but little if any further damage will be suffered by the recent floods. The levees require an expenditure of several million dollars to put them in a state of reasonable security against great floods, and that they should have yielded in places during the highest flood heretofore recorded is to be taken as a matter of course.

MURDERED BY PIRATES.

Two Brothers Kill the Captain and Six of the Crew of the Schooner.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 19.—News has been brought to Yokohama of a terrible murder and piracy on the high seas. A few months ago the schooner Undine, of 180 tons, owned by Crawford & Company, of San Francisco, sailed from that port for the South Sea islands, in command of Captain Castella. The vessel's crew consisted of the captain and eight men.

At Honolulu a man who said he was the mate's brother joined the vessel, and about three days out from Honolulu one of the brothers shot the captain and supercargo. The crew were then plied with poisoned liquor, and made way with, except the steward, who was given a bribe of $1,000. At one of the islands a new crew of natives was shipped, and the schooner proceeded to Ascension Island. There the steward revealed the crime to the authorities, who arrested the murderers and sent them to Manila.

BRAZIL, Ind., July 19.—John Russell, a miner in the Otter Creek mine of the Brazil Block Coal company, near Carbon, was fatally crushed by falling slate yesterday. He was terribly crushed about the head and chest, and about three tons of slate was removed from off his body.

Hogs Cremated.

CLEVELAND, July 19.—The principle stock shed at the Cleveland stock yards was burned yesterday afternoon entailing a loss of about $75,000. About 150 hogs were burned to death.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

For Kentucky, generally fair; possibly local showers in eastern portion; south-westerly winds; slightly warmer.

AS ANNOUNCED Saturday, for the coming school year Kentucky's per capita will be $2.50, as against $2.25 last year. "This sum is small," says the Louisville Times, "but it should be borne in mind that only two of the forty-four States in the Union pay more money out of the treasuries for common school purposes than Kentucky pays."

At Minneapolis the Republican party declared that it "will never release its efforts" until a Force bill is passed. "This declaration alone ought to be sufficient to induce every Democratic voter from Maine to California and from Florida to the Canada line to cast his vote for the ticket nominated at Chicago," says the Georgetown Times.

TREASURER HALE has made a statement for the two years he has been in office, showing that during that time he has received from the banks as interest on deposits $11,678.32. During the same period he has paid the banks interest on deficits they have carried for the State amounting to $1,979.85, leaving a net profit to the State of $9,698.47. An excellent showing.

WINNING REPUBLICAN VOTES.

"The information which comes from Connecticut that many lifelong Republicans in that State are going over openly to the side of Cleveland and tariff reform will surprise no one who is familiar with the sentiment in New England towards the tariff question," says the New York Evening Post. "Ever since the passage of the McKinley law, there has been in all the New England States a steadily increasing body of Republican voters who have reached the conclusion that the only way by which New England industries can secure the free raw materials necessary for their continued existence is by leaving the Republican party and voting with the Democrats. They demanded free raw materials of the McKinley Congress, and were not only met with refusal, but with higher duties. That was satisfactory proof to them that there was no hope of relief through the Republican party. The consequence is that the Democratic tariff plank attracts them. The Times gives the names of a large number of former Republicans who have come out openly for Cleveland in Connecticut, and we are in constant receipt of private information which convinces us of a similar condition of affairs in other New England States. We judge from the faint-hearted way in which the leading Republican organs take hold of the tariff issue that they too have heard news of this character, and are filled with doubt in consequence as to the expediency of putting the party on the extreme 'McKinley tariff' basis."

That Shooting on Shannon.

Thomas Best, the Mt. Olivet teamster who was shot and badly wounded during a row at a colored picnic Saturday evening near Shannon, was reported in a rather serious condition yesterday, but rested very well last night. He was hit in three or four places, but the most dangerous wound is in the leg near the groin.

The fight started over a gambling game, which the negroes claim several whites attempted to run on the ground. The row commenced about 7 o'clock in the evening and was a free-for-all; pistols, shot-guns, rocks and clubs being the weapons.

The colored people had the best of it for a while, but Lewis White finally secured a shotgun and routed the blacks.

Besides Best, several others were wounded, but only slightly, among them Isaiah Williams, Dan Clark and a fellow named Middleton. Clark is the only one yet arrested. He was taken in custody yesterday and will be given a trial Thursday.

The Carnegie Philosophy.

In a carefully prepared interview last April Mr. Carnegie was delightfully frank about himself, his great riches and the way he became so wealthy. He said among other things: "In the latter part of the 70's I made money at the rate of $2,000,000 a year. I am now worth in value of my possessions between $30,000,000 and $35,000,000. Besides my American manufactures I own a syndicate of newspapers published in small English towns." How he accumulated his immense wealth is explained in this pithy paragraph from the same interview: "It isn't the man who does the work that makes the money. It's the man who gets other men to do it." That is the whole Carnegie philosophy in a nutshell. The result is Homestead.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

He Sang "Annie Rooney."

At Reynoldsville, Bath County, Breck Manly entered the Christian Church a few days ago, singing "Annie Rooney" as he marched down the aisle. The Owingsville Outlook says: "Ben Snelling and others interfered and entered objections to the singing of 'Annie Rooney,' especially in church. So pronounced was this objection that John Fleming promptly knocked Manly down, and after a considerable scuffle the offender was ejected from the house not, however, until he had succeeded in breaking up the services. The general opinion is that a man should be vigorously prosecuted for singing 'Annie Rooney' under any circumstances and much more for singing it in midst of a congregation of worshippers. Manly was tried and fined twenty dollars."

Revoke Their Pensions.

A startling case of filial irreverence has come to light by the death of poor, old aunt Sallie Keys, at the County Infirmary, at the age of 88 years. Three children, two sons and one daughter, who have grown to manhood and womanhood and are married, are known to survive her, each of whom is able to live in comfortable circumstances. The two sons having served their country in the late war, and are now drawing pensions permitted the best friend God ever gave them to die and be buried a pauper.—West Union (O.) Defender.

PORK PACKING AND PROVISIONS.

[Cincinnati Price Current, July 14.]

Western packing for the week shows a total of 240,000 hogs, against 245,000 the preceding week, 170,000 for corresponding time last year, and 310,000 two years ago. For March the total is 4,630,000 hogs, against 4,005,000 a year ago—increased, 625,000. At the close of the week prices of hogs are slightly higher than a week ago at most of the markets. In some instances the quality is reported as improved, but the average is not high for the time of year.

The full prices being paid have encouraged the marketing of stock. As compared with market values of leading articles of product, there is an apparent margin unfavorable to packing operations, but the larger establishments, which command a considerable trade in a retailing way, are enabled to secure an average which encourages them in operating. The output of product from western continues liberal, and it is evident that the consumption in domestic as well as in foreign markets is large. The export clearances for the week were again large, considerably exceeding the liberal movement for corresponding period last year, the greater gain being in meats.

It is quite likely that some reduction in the marketing of hogs may be shown in the near future. Closing prices at Chicago, compared with a week ago, show an advance of 25¢ per barrel on pork, 12½¢ per 100 pounds on lard and 25¢ on short rib sides, for September delivery.

WEEKLY REVIEW OF THE CINCINNATI TOBACCO MARKET.

Total offerings at auction for the week just closed were 2,113 hds. classed as follows: 630 hds. Mason County (Ky.) District, 368 hds. Pennington County (Ky.) District, 300 hds. Owen County (Ky.) District, 248 hds. Blue Grass (Ky.) District, 546 hds. Brown County (Ohio) District and 26 hds. West Virginia against 2,465 hds. the previous week and 2,158 hds. corresponding week last year. Total offerings for the year to date 62,578 hds. against 65,066 hds. same time last year.

Receipts for the week.....2,679
Receipts same week last year.....2,296

The offerings, while not as heavy as previous week, were still large. Receipts were heavy there more than during any week this year, and there is shown an increase of stock of 1,237 hds. While there was, throughout the week, a firm market there was, at times, some irregularity in the bidding, but taken as a whole business was fairly satisfactory. Fine leaf was offered sparingly, but for that on sale the demand was active at full prices. Good leaf shows a steady demand and is selling well. Common and medium leaf remains as for some time past, being in steady request, but not commanding the same attention from buyers as other grades, and prices show no change from previous reports. A strong, active demand continues for common grades and lugs and these goods are taken at full and satisfactory prices.

Of the 2,133 hds. 18 sold from $1 to $3.95, 231 from $4 to $5.95, 1,118 from $6 to $7.95, 242 from $8 to $9.95, 305 from $10 to $14.75, 185 from $15 to $19.75, 21 from $20 to $23 and 2 from $23 to $25.25.

ELECTION PRECINCTS.

The Law On This Subject and On the Subject of Election Officers.

Section 1 of Article 2 of the new Election law provides that "the County Court of each county in this State shall, on or before the August term of said courts, divide the Justices' districts of each of said counties into election precincts, and establish the name or number and boundaries of same, and place of voting in each precinct. There shall be but one voting place in a precinct. Each precinct shall contain, as nearly as practicable, three hundred voters, based on the number of votes cast at the last election for Presidential electors; but no precinct shall contain more than three hundred and fifty voters. If at any election hereafter more than three hundred and fifty votes shall be cast at any voting place, it shall be the duty of the sheriff of the election in such precinct to report the same to the County Court, which shall at its next regular term divide such precinct as equally as possible, so that the new precincts formed thereof shall each contain three hundred voters, as nearly as practicable. If, for any good cause, an election can not be held at the house appointed as the place of voting, the judges of the election may, on the morning of the election, adjourn it to the most convenient place, after having publicly proclaimed the change and posted notice of the same on said house."

Section 2 of Article 3 reads as follows: "Each County Court shall annually at the August term thereof appoint in each election precinct two judges, one clerk and one sheriff of election to act as such in their precinct, all of whom shall be discreet qualified voters of the precinct for which they are appointed, and shall hold their offices until their successors are appointed and qualified, and so long as there are two distinct political parties in this Commonwealth, the judge, clerk and sheriff in all elections by the people under the Constitution and laws of the United States, and under the Constitution and laws of this State shall be so selected and appointed as that one of the judges at each place of voting shall be of one political party, and the other judge of the other or opposing political party; and the like difference shall exist at each place of voting between the sheriff and clerk of elections: Provided that there be a sufficient number of persons of each political party resident in the several precincts to fill said offices."

Captain John W. Headley, Secretary of State, will send the first copies of the Election bill he receives from the printer to the County Court Clerks, in order that they may inform themselves at once as to the requirements of the law.

The gain in May this year over last was less than 3 per cent., and in April less than 4 per cent., so that the past month is seen to have brought a distinct improvement. For six months the total gross earnings were $259,509,000, about 8 per cent. more than in the first half of 1891, during which period the increase over the six months of 1890 was less than 5 per cent.

THE new election law provides for the printing on the official ballots, on application, of the names of any candidates of political parties that polled as much as 2 per cent. of the entire vote of the State at the preceding election. The State candidates that did not poll so large a vote may be placed upon the ballot on the presentation of a petition with 1,000 signers for each candidate. As at the last election the Prohibitionists only polled 3,293 votes, which is considerably less than 2 per cent. of the entire vote cast, the only chance for them to get the names of their candidates on the official ballots at the next election is by means of petitions, says the Courier-Journal's Frankfort correspondent.

CAUSE FOR ALARM.

The Condition of Affairs at the Idaho Mines Growing Critical.

WALLACE, Ida., June 19.—The condition of affairs in the Coeur d'Alene district continues to be alarming. It is feared that the miners' union intends making an aggressive move of some sort. It is said that many men have been seen on the hills, and it is feared an attack will be made, or that the strikers will attempt to blow up the granite mill just below the town of Gem.

The military have been reinforced and guards doubled. The Gem and Frisco mines will be started at once with full forces of non-union men.

The work of arrest is proceeding with great care and deliberation. A deputy United States marshal marches through the camps and spots a striker and the troops seize him. Few of the union men remain here, and there are few known to be in this vicinity. The canon has been scoured and only one man was found.

Scouts report the presence of armed bodies at various points, but there has been no outbreak to show their whereabouts.

An exodus of strikers is taking place by way of Glidden's Pass to Thompson Falls. The strikers are thick on the mountains around Mullane, and their camp fires could be seen by the soldiers last night.

Testing a New Law.

CLEVELAND, July 19.—Six years ago the general assembly passed a law which gives the right of dower to the husband as well as wife. The first suit commenced in Cuyahoga county under that law was begun Friday. Thomas McGinness commenced proceedings against his five children, heirs at law to his deceased wife's estate. He asks that a dower interest be decreed him under the new law. The property is valuable. Among the real estate involved are fourteen houses which McGinness built with his own money and placed in his wife's name. The suit will attract much interest as it will bring out a number of new points at law.

Two Women Drowned.

GLOUCESTER, N. J., July 19.—Mrs. Matthew Murray and Mary E. Gallagher were drowned in the Delaware last evening. Matthew Murray, his wife, Mary Gallagher and William Martin hired a skiff last evening to take a row on the river. The swell of a passing steamboat caused the skiff to rock, and the women became frightened, and springing to their feet lost their balance and fell overboard. The men lost control of the boat in the swift tide, and Murray sprang into the water and swam toward his wife, but before reaching her both she and Miss Gallagher sank for the last time. Murray was rescued. All the party were from Philadelphia.

Cyclone Damages.

HAMILTON, O., July 19.—The principal damage done by the cyclone in this vicinity was at Snyder pulp mills. Four men were caught in the debris and more or less hurt, but none of them fatally, the injuries consisting of cuts and bruises. It was at first thought that John Gebhardt and Arthur Bare were fatally hurt, but a careful examination showed the injuries not to be so alarming. The other men were Charles Miller and Henry Skillman. All are doing well. The damage to the mill is about $3,500, all of which will come on the firm, as there is no cyclone clause in the insurance.

Sequel to a Suicide.

COLUMBUS, O., July 19.—As sequel to the suicide of Frank Rowland in the penitentiary it has developed that his partner in crime, James Doyle, had also agreed to commit suicide. They bid each other farewell last Friday. Shortly afterward Doyle became crazy in the supposition that Rowland in his confession had implicated him in other crimes. Doyle was removed to the prison asylum. They both were received from Ottawa county for burglary.

Double Drowning.

WOOSTER, O., July 19.—A double drowning took place near Paradise Sunday. Frederick and John Seigenthaler and Christian Buss, all young men, went into a pond to bathe. Buss was taken with cramps, and getting hold of Frederick Seigenthaler pulled him to the bottom. He also took hold of John Seigenthaler, who managed to release himself from the drowning man.

Eradicating an Epidemic.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., July 19.—Telegraphic instructions have been received from the treasury department ordering the deputy collectors of customs at sub-ports of Puget sound to refuse entry to vessels from foreign ports without permission from the quarantine office at this port. This order continues in effect until the smallpox abates in Victoria.

Laudanum Ended His Life.

LOGANSPORT, Ind., July 19.—Hiram McCalup died at the Shannon House from the effects of laudanum, supposed to have been taken with suicidal intent. Two years ago he lost the sight of an eye through an injury, and by doctoring with quack doctors the other was also destroyed. He became despondent, and on Saturday was heard to say that he would prefer death to life under existing circumstances.

Quarter of a Million Fire Loss.

MONTREAL, July 19.—T. P. Clendenin's stove and iron foundry on William street, and Ramsay & Sons' factory adjoining, were partially burned. The damage is estimated at $250,000. There are rumors that the fire was of an incendiary nature.

His Body Not Recovered.

AURORA, Ind., July 19.—In attempting to swim across the Ohio river at Patriot, Ind., yesterday evening, Clifford Hughes, a popular young man, became exhausted and drowned. The body has not yet been recovered.

Captured in Mexico.

NASHVILLE, July 19.—Lester H. Gale and W. E. Turner, absconding teller and bookkeeper of the City Savings bank, who stole $30,000, have been captured in Mexico, and will be extradited.
